

Recovery Network

— BEHAVIORAL HEALTH —

Recovery Network and University Psychological Center come together to provide you a unique opportunity for integrated treatment for those who are facing co-occurring and/or behavioral health disorders. Our clinical team of counselors, therapists, psychiatrists, and allied-health professionals aim to inspire inner healing, providing a state-certified blend of mental health and addiction services. Through individualized care, we encourage patients to achieve their own personal goals, guiding them to a better quality of life. We will coordinate with you to make sure a person in the midst of change has a safe, supportive transition. We appreciate your interest in Recovery Network and UPC, Inc. as trusted providers of comprehensive co-occurring behavioral health treatment.
